Multi-Year Accessibility Plan

This plan will be reviewed every five (5) years and will be available online. This plan will be provided in an accessible format by contacting Steve Kambasis – Vice President, Canadian Operations at: steve.X.Kambasis@examone.com or (905) 421-5103.

Workplace Emergency Response Information

ExamOne Canada provides individualized workplace emergency response information to employees who require such information as a result of a disability.

If an employee, who receives individualized workplace emergency response information requires assistance and with the employee's consent, ExamOne Canada shall provide the workplace emergency response information to the person designated by the company to provide assistance to the employee.

Any individualized workplace emergency response information will be reviewed when: (1) an employee moves to another location; (2) the employee's overall accommodation needs or plans have changed; (3) when the company reviews its general emergency response policies to ensure continued compliance.

Training

ExamOne Canada will provide training to employees, volunteers, and other staff members on Ontario accessibility laws and on the Human Rights code as it relates to people with disabilities. Training will be provided in a way that best suits the duties of the employee, volunteer or other staff member. The company will maintain records of the training provided.

ExamOne Canada provides training in various formats, such as group seminar training or online training depending on its needs.

Informing Employees of Supports – Compliance Date: January 1, 2016

ExamOne Canada will inform its employees of its policies used to support its employees with disabilities, including, but not limited to, policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability.

ExamOne Canada will provide the information required under this section to new employees as soon as practicable after they begin their employment.

ExamOne Canada will provide updated information to its employees whenever there is a change to existing policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability.

Accessible Formats and Communication Supports for Employees – Compliance Date: January 1, 2016

Where an employee with a disability so requests it, ExamOne Canada shall consult with the employee to provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports for: (a) information that is needed in order to inform the employee's job; and (b) information that is generally available to employees in the workplace.

ExamOne Canada will consult with the employee making the request in determining the suitability of an accessible format or communication support.

Documented Individual Accommodation Plans – Compliance Date: January 1, 2016

ExamOne Canada will have in place a written process for the development of documented individual accommodation plans for employees with disabilities. The process will include the following elements:

- The manner in which an employee requesting accommodation can participate in the development of the individual accommodation plan;
- The means by which the employee is assessed on an individual basis;
- The manner in which ExamOne Canada can request an evaluation by an outside medical or other expert, at its own expense, to assist in determining if accommodation can be achieved and, if so, how accommodation can be achieved;
- The steps taken to protect the privacy of the employee's personal information;
- The frequency with which the individual accommodation plan will be reviewed and updated and the manner in which it will be done;
- If an individual accommodation plan is denied, the manner in which the reasons for the denial will be provided to the employee; and
- The means of providing the individual accommodation plan in a format that takes into account the employee's needs.

Where requested, an employee's individual accommodation plan will include any information regarding the provision of accessible formats and communication supports. Where required, an employee's individual accommodation plan will include individualized workplace emergency response information. An employee's individual accommodation plan will include any additional accommodation that is to be provided.

Return to Work Process – Compliance Date: January 1, 2016

ExamOne Canada (a) will develop and have in place a return to work process for its employees who have been absent from work due to a disability and require disability-related accommodations in order to return to work; and (b) shall document the process.

The return to work process shall outline the steps ExamOne Canada will take to facilitate the return to work of employees who were absent because their disability required them to be away from work; and will consider a documented individual accommodation plan that may exist.

Performance Management – Compliance Date: January 1, 2016

When using performance management with its employees, ExamOne Canada will take into account the accessibility needs of employees with disabilities, as well as individual accommodation plans.
